HOME SCHOOL AGREEMENT

Dear Parents/Carers,

At St Alban's we are working hard to ensure that you are fully involved in your child's education and that each child fully understands their importance to the school and their role in living out the mission statement – "to love one another as I have loved you."

In support of this commitment to you, we want to ensure clarity between Home and school with a Home School Agreement which includes a School, parent and a pupil commitment. We want to make clear and to help underline the responsibilities and expectations between parents, students and the school.

The Home school agreement will be sent home this week. I would ask that as we set up routines for the children at the start of the year that you spend time discussing the agreement. Please could you sign and return to the school's class teacher.

The agreement sets out:

- the school's aims and values the school's responsibilities towards each child – we want the best for each child and for every unique person to thrive at St. Alban's

In signing it the class teacher is showing a willingness to work hard for you and by you signing as a family you are showing your willingness to work with the school in achieving the very best outcomes for your son / daughter – they are very special, they only get one chance and we want them to have the very best opportunities.

St Alban's staff look forward to working with you in the year ahead.

As mentioned in a letter in July we are formally launching our new behaviour policy in September - It would be great to see you on the 7th September either at 9.30am or 6pm to meet me and the team and ask any questions.

Yours sincerely

Mr J McDonald
